

SAGE

GRAPEVINE-COLLEYVILLE

SUPPORTING & ADVOCATING FOR GIFTED EDUCATION

gc-sage.org

GIFTED PATHWAYS

How to Navigate Your Gifted Child from Kindergarten to College

Tuesday, November 7, 2017 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

@ Professional Development & Education Center, 5800 Colleyville Blvd.

FREE for SAGE families or $10 at the door for individual non-members

5:30 p.m. Family Social & Brown Bag Dinner

Bring dinner for your family and eat and socialize with other SAGE members. Get to know your GT community! Invite friends from your school to meet up, or make a new friend there.

6:00 p.m. General Session

Best Practices in Gifted Advocacy

What do you do if your child is on the wrong path?
What is the right way to advocate for your child?
How do you work effectively with your child's educators to ensure that they get what they need?
Hear about best practices in GT advocacy and get tips and advice based on SAGE's 8 years of advocating for GT kids in Grapevine Colleyville.

All Evening — Sign up when you arrive!

Chat With a GT Expert

Sign up for a 10-minute private conversation with pediatrician Dr. Justin Smith or SAGE Founder Kimberley Barber-Davis.

6:30 p.m. to 8:00 Breakout Rotations

Elementary Pathways

Gifted 101: My child is gifted — now what? Cindy Garcia, gifted specialist and parent, defines GT buzz words and shares strategies for parenting our unique kids.

Insights from High Achievers: A panel of our National Merit Scholars will share what's ahead for your kids. Moderated by wonderful teachers from each high school.

Elementary Counselor Q&A: Ask a question of Emberly Hill, GCISD Director of Counseling, and the counselors.

Secondary Pathways

College Admissions Success: Karen Dillard, College Prep, will talk about navigating admissions and the SAT/ACT. Very informative session.

Insights from High Achievers: A panel of our National Merit Scholars will share about their GT experience and their college search. Moderated by wonderful teachers from each high school.

Secondary Counselor Q&A: Ask a question of Emberly Hill, GCISD Director of Counseling, and the counselors.